HOME RULE IN NEVADA.

The Silver State has nothing against Senator Jones personally, as personally we like him, but we honor our State more than we love him, hence our opposition. This paper has furlled to the breeze the banner of "Nevada for Nevadans," and it will keep it flying from now until none but bona fide Nevadans are on guard at Washington—men who live in Nevada, men whose common interests are here and men who will show their respect to the sons and daughters of Nevada, by giving them all the crumbs of official patronage at their disposal, be they great or small. The editor of this paper has no political ambition to satisfy, as he is well aware of the fact that he who thinks for himself and acts as he thinks, makes political enemies that are difficult to overcome; but he has the ambition to prove to the people of Nevada that he is not a blackmailer or servile tool of any man or set of men—reflections that have been cast upon us during the recent contest—and if God gives him life for the next few years, we believe this ambition will be realized. We love Nevada. We love her people. It is the State of our adoption. All we have here, and here we expect to live and die, but before the latter event, unless it comes very soon, we will have something more to say upon this question of home rule, one of the most important now confronting the people of Nevada—Silver State.

The above is straight talk and we believe that the voters of Nevada will wheel in line under that banner. As far as Jones is concerned we do not now and never did regard him as a bona fide resident of Nevada, but the prestige he has acquired by his connection with the bimetallic movement as one of its leaders, is so pronounced that he is in fact greater than his party. His defeat at this time would have been regarded by the people of the East as an indication that the people of Nevada, who first hoisted the banner of silver above party, had repented of their action to such an extent as to be willing to repudiate a man whose knowledge of the silver question was deeper than any one man who had ever studied it.

Mr. Nixon has given emphasis to the idea of Nevada for Nevadans and he will be sustained by the people of this State.

The Ashley Case.

Both Lucky Baldwin and Miss Ashley were unmercifully scored by the court in the recent seduction case as well as the wretched witness Osborn. Referring to Osborn's testimony the court said:

"Osborn swears to intimacy with the plaintiff at several places in Boston, which the plaintiff denies. What Osborn says in this particular may be dismissed with the remark that a creature who is so low in the scale of humanity as to volunteer such testimony of his own moral obliquity, implicating an unfortunate woman, and to consent to come from Oregon to give it at a stipend of $5 per day, is, unless corroborated, utterly unworthy of belief."

He pronounces the woman a fraud, who was out to make money and Baldwin he alludes to as a man of wholly depraved nature and void of all shame and decency.

The whole output shaken up in a bag would not be a presentable exhibit in Sacramento, even during a session of the California legislature.

Each man's share of the Globe is according to careful maintenance 23½ acres. According to that Tom Rickey must have some other fellows land.

Senator Jones of Nevada succeeded him, self, which is of course the appropriate and expected thing; for while the silver fight is on, it would be madness to displace the original and most powerful silver champion in the Senator.—Salt Lake Tribune.

Members of the Legislature are requested to leave orders for all daily California or local papers (except Carson papers) at John G. Fox's, opposite the State Capitol. A full line of all kinds of stationery and legislative bill files on hand.
